

POLITICAL RALLY HELD AT CRUCES

Many Las Cruces People Are Attending the Jubilee in El Paso.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 22.—Marcos C. de Baco, candidate for congress of the Progressive party of New Mexico, delivered an address here Tuesday evening, on the plaza in front of the Catholic church, owing to the chilly atmosphere the crowd was not as large as expected.

Many Las Cruces people are already in El Paso enjoying the week's festivities. A large crowd will go down on Friday to witness the Os-Aple parade.

Stuart Baker, of Elephant Butte, arrived here Tuesday evening, and after a brief visit with his father and brother, will go to St. Louis, Mo., where he has a position with the engineering department of the Missouri Pacific Railroad company. Mr. Baker is a recent graduate of the New Mexico state college, and for the past two years has been the engineer of the United States reclamation service at Elephant Butte.

Charles Hammer and his aunt have returned to this place after several months spent in California. The small son, Charles, is ill at their home on Lee street.

Miss Fern Reeves is spending this week in El Paso, the guest of her sister, Miss Letha Reeves.

The repairing of Main street is nearing completion.

The two floats from here for the Os-Aple parade, were taken in separate cars over to Santa Fe in El Paso. Mesdames O'Hara and Stoes have had charge of the trimming of the floats.

Mrs. George, wife of Maj. George, who was quite ill recently, is now able to be out.

STATE COLLEGE GETS NEW STUDENTS FROM TEXAS TOWNS

State College, N. M., Oct. 22.—C. H. Gensler of El Paso is one of the new students who has entered for work in the industrial agricultural course. Hugh E. Dille, a student of last year from Tahart, Texas, is one of the new college arrivals.

Miss Pearl Miller, in charge of the domestic science department, accompanied by Mrs. J. O. Miller and Miss Adele Medlar, spent a day in El Paso shopping.

Dr. W. E. Garrison and J. O. Miller, registrar, went down to El Paso the same day in Dr. Garrison's car, but were held up on the way to a mud hole.

After a couple of hours work in the mud under the car the men were able to proceed. One of them, however, was compelled to remain in his room at a hotel in El Paso the rest of the day while his clothes were being put in shape at a cleaning establishment.

Dr. R. F. Hare, in charge of the chemistry department, and J. O. Miller, registrar, are in Albuquerque attending the meeting of the grand lodge.

S. R. Mitchell is spending a few days hunting in the Black range. W. T. Conway, of the extension department, accompanied R. Davis to El Paso, where Mr. Davis went for medical treatment. Specialists pronounce his condition serious.

A large number of college people are attending the jubilee in El Paso. Mrs. Ethel Maelver has returned after a few days' visit with her daughter, Miss Ivander, in El Paso.

Mrs. John Anderson has entered for special work in the domestic science department.

The class in comparative literature is making an extensive study of conditions in Turkey and vicinity.

Fort Bliss 25c Round Trip.
The E. P. & S. W. Fort Bliss special leaves E. P. & S. W. office building tomorrow at 2 p. m., 25c roundtrip.—Adv.

Longwell's Auto For Hire.
Call 1 for the finest auto in El Paso. Ed Wolf drives it.—Advertisement.

PERFECT POLICE CONTROL.
Chief I. N. Davis, of the police department, was in personal charge of the patrolmen at Cleveland Square Tuesday evening and the crowd was handled without a hitch. Sergeant W. D. Greet aided the chief.

The Gadder Is On The Job

Travelers Don't Fear Strange Dishes.
Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Ease the Stomach to Stand Anything.

A Box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Is Your Best Traveling Companion.

"Travelers tell you about the wonders of Nature along their lines; hotels describe their modern accommodations; but they never fail to ring in their 'cuisine unexcelled.' The wise traveler knows he is taking 'poor' luck when he leaves home, hence a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is quite as essential as many of the other traveling requisites."

Thus commented a philosophical traveling man, speaking of hotel life, restaurants, grills and junction lunch counters. The agitation in this world, he continued, "is the result of one set of men trying to combat the other set to think and act against their own inclinations. It is the same in religion, politics, and even in love. I have learned from experience to eat what they serve; to forget the food experts; read the current news and jokes and leave the stomach to the best expert in the world—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets."

And Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets actually do the work assigned them. They relieve weak and overburdened stomachs of a great deal of needless worry. Their component parts assist the digestive fluids and secretions of the stomach and they simply take up the grind and carry on the work just the same as a good, strong, healthy stomach would do it.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are for sale by all druggists, at 50 cents a box, and they are the one article that the druggist does not try to sell something in the place of it that's "just as good." Their unqualified merit and success and the universal demand for them has placed them within the reach of everyone.—Adv.

Fashionable Footwear

Buy your Fall Shoes tomorrow. Our lines are complete with the brightest, most stylish and most serviceable men's and women's styles to be found at the prices— which range from $2.50 up. Also we are headquarters for solid leather-school shoes.

You can depend on shoes bought here. We guarantee every shoe to give full value for the money and we fit you properly. If you appreciate buying honest goods from courteous salesmen who know how to fit shoes, come and see us.

American Shoe Store

110 MESA AVENUE

New Fiction

My Lady's Garter, Futrelle
Where There's a Will, Mary Roberts Rinehart
The Lady Dock, Caroline Lockhart
The Court of St. Simon, Anthony Partridge
George Helm, D. G. Phillips
The West Wind, C. T. Brady
The Good Indian, B. M. Bower
The Long Portage, H. Bindloss
The Arm Chair at the Inn, F. Hop. Smith

"Mail Orders Filled Promptly"

El Paso Book Co.

204 MILLS ST.

EL PASO, TEXAS

LAS CRUCES PEOPLE READY TO BRING FLOATS FOR THE EL PASO JUBILEE

The plans for the Las Cruces portion of the Os-Aple pageant have all been completed, and all the committees are busy at work.

The present will be allegorical in nature. A band of 40 Indians, of the Piras (Children of the Sun), and of the Teguas (Morning Stars), in native costume, will enact the legend of "Our Lady of Guadalupe" to Juan Diego. This is an ancient Indian legend, and is one of the early religious ceremonies of the natives of the San Juan valley. Juan Diego, being a poor Indian, demurred, but was persuaded. He was not kindly received by the bishop, and returned to the vision for further instruction and a sign. The vision filled his blanket with beautiful flowers from the mountainside, and made him return. When he reached the bishop again, he cast the blanket before him, and in all the flowers had become a part of the blanket, rendering the poor cloth of the peasant a thing of wonderous beauty. The bishop was convinced of the sign and builded the chapel to "Our Lady of Guadalupe."

The second feature of the pageant will be a company of cowboys and cowgirls, representing the pioneer days of the cattlemen of the southwest. These will be accompanied by a chuck wagon. Twenty-two matched white horses will be sent from the Cox ranch for this section, and the Isaza chuck wagon will also be brought to El Paso.

The present era of progress will be represented by citizens of the valley in automobiles, tastefully decorated. Then will follow the floats, at least five in number, completing the allegorical story of Allisem and the Mesilla valley. Queen Allisem will be Miss Blanche Cox.

Queen's Proclamation.
The queen of Allisem sent word of her coming, in the following proclamation, which V. R. Stiles brought down from Las Cruces to chief Os-Aple:
"Message and Greeting—Know all tribes of the realm of Allisem, queen of the sun, that on the 31st day of the harvest season of the year 1136, there have arrived in my empire, braves from the realm of Os-Aple, king of the southland, who have journeyed far and brought tidings from the land of the Aztecs and of the Toltecs, the cities of Cholula, Acuma, the land of the Zunis and the Moquis, and from Quirex and Socorro.

"To these braves I send in the name of all my people greetings. To them I send the emblem of peace and request that they convey to chief Os-Aple and his braves and princesses the word of my coming with my maidens and my subjects unto the realm of chief Os-Aple. And I send to him by these braves the great pipe of peace that has comforted our tribes these centuries, and command that it be given unto chief Os-Aple as a goodwill offering from my people unto the people of the San Juan tribe for all time."
(Signed)
"In the 6700th year of her reign."

The Queen Arrives.
Queen Allisem, sovereign of all the New Mexico tribes, arrived Wednesday morning and will remain for the jubilee.

She will attend the dancing party given by Princess Wanda at the Court-try club this evening and chief Os-Aple will give a reception in his honor Friday evening, following the Os-Aple pageant. This will be given at the Toltec club and will include the queen's court, the chief's staff and the princess's maids of honor.

President Burd Orndorff of the Jubilee association, chief Os-Aple and princess Wanda called on queen Allisem at the hotel Sheldon Wednesday morning. She has established her court there and will remain for the jubilee week.

The big horses which will draw the Mesilla valley float in the Os-Aple parade Friday evening will be from the Fuller brothers ranch at La Tuna, Tex. There will be two teams of the big draft horses attached to the float.

TALBOT IS APPOINTED ON EDDY COUNTY ROAD BOARD
Artesia, N. M., Oct. 22.—Governor W. C. McDonald has appointed Gayle Talbot as one of the county road board of Eddy county. The other members of the board are E. M. Thorne and F. L. Dearborn.

The real estate firm of Keinath, Schuster & Hudson has dissolved.

John C. Keys has brought his family to Artesia and is occupying the Stocumb residence.

S. E. Ferree, Albert Blake and William Crandall will serve on the election board as judges.

Auto For Hire.
Call phone 1 for the fast, safe car of Longwell's. Ed Wolf drives it.—Adv.

Perfection Oil Hesters.
Laurie Hardware Co., 309 Mills St., Adv.

Majestic Ranges.
Laurie Hardware Co., 309 Mills St., Adv.

WATER RIGHT FIGHT ON UTE CREEK ENDS

Denver Company Wins Contention and Will Continue Extensive Development Work Near Nara Visa.

Nara Visa, N. M., Oct. 22.—After a long and bitter fight between the Canadian Valley Irrigation district, of Logan, west of here of the Rock Island, and the Interstate Land and Development company, of Denver, the Ute creek water right question has been finally settled in favor of the big Denver company. This water right includes the waters of Ute creek and two other smaller streams; and is to cover several thousand acres southwest of this place. This project also takes the main factors in the fight against the Canadian Valley district, which is owned by Mrs. Francisco Gallegos and sons. These people have been some of the main factors in the fight against the right being granted to either of the two contending companies.

The Canadian Valley district was composed of a small district in the Canadian river to the north and west of Logan, and was formed under the irrigation laws of the state for the purpose of voting bonds to carry the proposition through, and was organized about two years ago by local people. This company has its preliminary work done at once, but could not make a sufficient showing to persuade the state engineer to grant the water right at that time.

Soon after the local people got their force of engineers in the field, the Denver firm put in a large force and went to work on the proposition in a way that attracted a great deal of attention from every one in the surrounding country, and has continued to locate dam sites and ditch lines ever since, which has been nearly two years, and has got the plans drawn up in shape to go to work on the project as soon as it can get its tools and machinery from works in Colorado which it has been putting in for the past several months.

This project promises to be one of the greatest strides in progress for a long time and will be a great thing for all of eastern New Mexico.

Alvin S. Felton, the young man who was reported lost near here and for whom searching parties were sent out, was located at the ranch of Mr. Uter, south of town, where he was at work.

The scare was caused by his horse getting away from him and going home with the saddle and bridle on.

Fire reported from the farm residence of Andy Howell, two and one-half miles east of the city. Mrs. Howell had had a fire in the stove to get breakfast with and supposed it had gone completely out when she left the house with her children and went over to a neighbor's house, half a mile away, to spend the day. She had only been at the neighbor's a few minutes when her attention was called to the fact that the house was on fire.

Fort Bliss 25c Round Trip.
The E. P. & S. W. Fort Bliss special leaves E. P. & S. W. office building tomorrow at 2 p. m., 25c roundtrip.—Adv.

The best cleaning and pressing. The quickest service. Wright, phone 343. (Advertisement)

The Bazaar To Quit Business Forever

This Affidavit Affirms It

THE BAZAAR

Men's and Boys Outfitters

310-312 SAN ANTONIO ST.

EL PASO, TEXAS.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

As owner of The Bazaar, located at 310-12 San Antonio St., I take this means of making a formal announcement that The Bazaar is to quit business forever. The reason is this: My large wholesale business, which is growing all the time, demands my entire attention. Then too, The Bazaar is in direct competition to my wholesale customers. I, therefore, propose to close out completely and quickly the entire Bazaar stock. Not only that but the fixtures and lease are for sale, too. At an early date the Bazaar stock will be placed before the public at prices that in no way represent its value.

Signed this 16th day of October, 1912, by

Raymond Krupp
Proprietor The Bazaar.

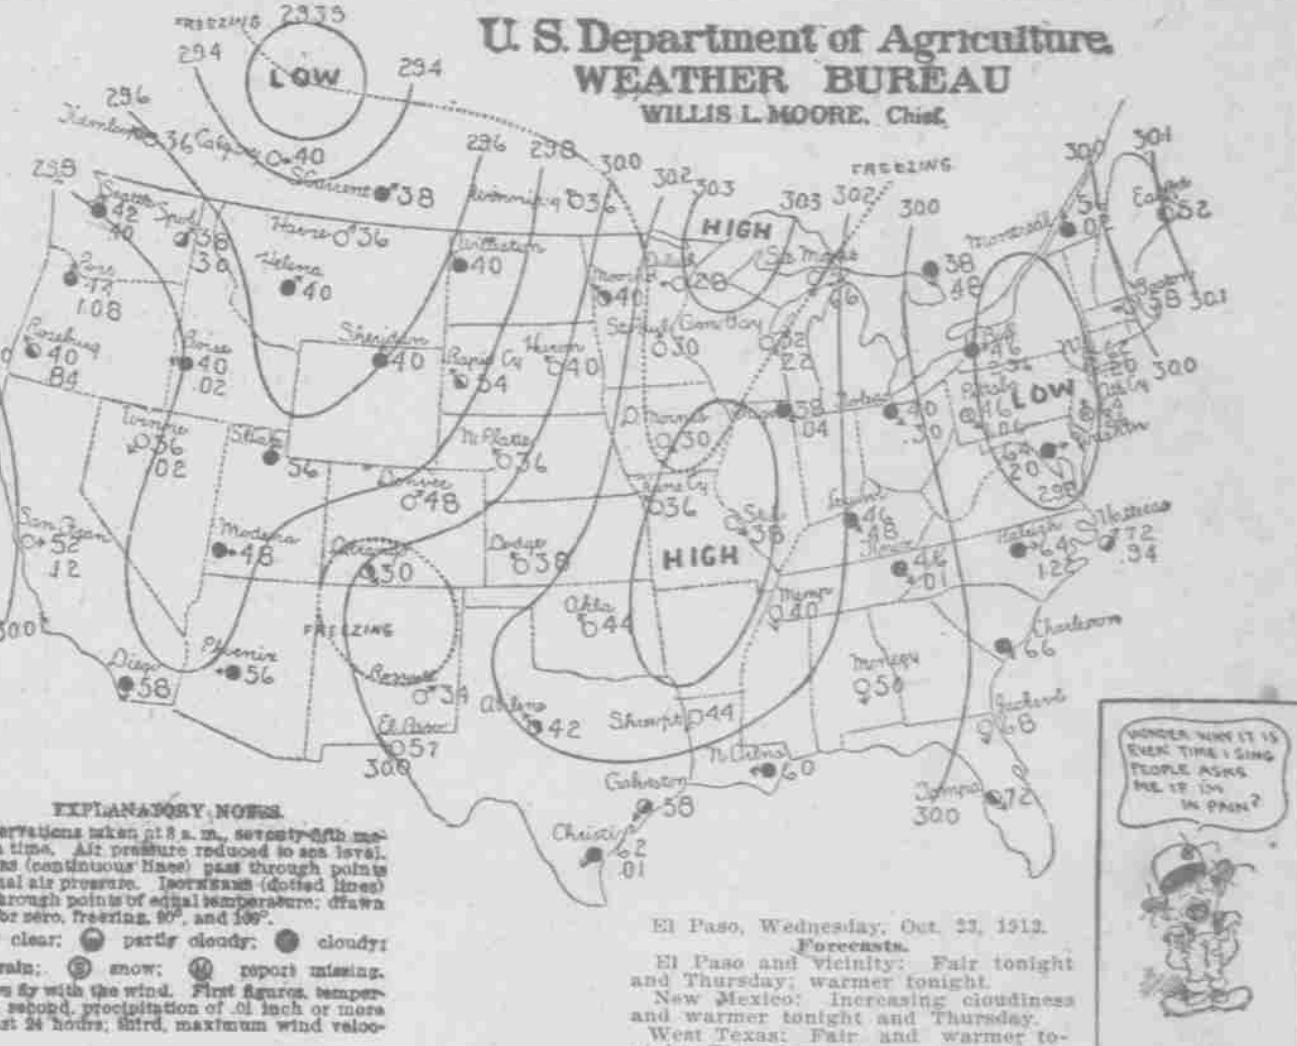

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 16th day of October, 1912.

W. H. Brown
Notary Public.

Notwithstanding our Quit Business Sale is to begin sometime later, Os-Aple visitors will find Present Prices are the most liberal in El Paso on Men's Clothing and Furnishings.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Observations taken at 8 a. m., seventy-five miles from El Paso. Altitude reduced to sea level. Isotherms (continuous lines) pass through points of equal air pressure. Isotherms (dotted lines) pass through points of equal temperature. Drawn only for zero, freezing, 60°, and 100°.

Clear; partly cloudy; cloudy; rain; snow; report missing.

Arrows show the wind. First figure, temperature; second, precipitation of 24 hrs. or more for past 24 hours; third, maximum wind velocity.

El Paso, Wednesday, Oct. 23, 1912.

Forecast: El Paso and vicinity: Fair tonight and Thursday; warmer tonight.

New Mexico: Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight and Thursday.

West Texas: Fair and warmer tonight; Thursday fair.

Local Data.

El Paso readings: Today Yesterday

Barometer (sea level) 29.95 29.96

Dry thermometer 57 58

Wet thermometer 48 51

Dew point 38 35

Relative humidity 54 59

Direction of wind 2 E

Velocity of wind 13 13

State of weather clear clear

Rainfall last 24 hrs. 0

Highest temp. last 24 hrs. 75

Lowest temp. last 24 hrs. 52

Height of river this morning above fixed zero mark, 9.4 feet. Rise in last 24 hours, 6.1 foot.

Ladies clothes dry cleaned. Wright. (Advertisement)